The AI Handyman
A Real Guy with Smart Tools.

Hello! My name is Tim and I am a Generative AI instructor, engineer, and founder of The AI Handyman LLC. I provide a wide range of services to help keep your business or personal needs up to date with the growing field of Artificial Intelligence. Services include:

🧠 On-Demand AI Consulting

Like a local handyman — I can come in and out of your business at an hourly rate whenever you need help.

📱 Media + Marketing Support

Generate social media content, headshots, and short-form videos for your brand.

💡 AI Education + Strategy

Help you understand new AI products, pitches, or strategies your company is evaluating. I can even attend meetings to guide your AI decision-making.

⚙️ Custom Builds + Automation

Design and build full visions for websites, internal tools, or chatbots. I also create automations for email, calendars, and lead tracking.

🚀 Always Up-To-Date

I stay on top of emerging trends and tools to keep both my consulting and my builds current and cutting-edge.

What I Do

From AI education & consulting to custom-built automations. I provide practical AI solutions that work for you.

💡 AI Education & Consultation

Personalized guidance and training to understand and apply AI effectively in your workflow.

💻 Custom Website + Tool Design

Build tailored digital tools and websites that integrate intelligent automation.

⚙️ Automation & Maintenance

Ongoing support to keep your AI systems efficient, adaptive, and up-to-date.

Whether you need one-hour strategy sessions or full AI integration, I bring hands-on experience to make AI approachable and useful — not hype.
